

SAVINGS COMPARISON: LASIK vs. Glasses & Contact Lenses

If you are concerned about the cost of LASIK surgery, here's a useful comparison between LASIK costs and the costs of wearing glasses and/or contacts.

LASIK	GLASSES	CONTACTS
One-Time Fee:* Average cost for LASIK (nationally): $4,500, both eyes, one-time cost Plus, after LASIK, you will no longer need to pay for expensive prescription glasses, contacts and prescription sunglasses.	Prescription Glasses: $320 every two years Prescription Sunglasses: $270 every two years	Contacts: $48 per month Contact Supplies: $12 per month
*Note: At Eye Consultants of Pennsylvania, the cost for LASIK is much lower than the national average. Ask for the details.	Average annual cost: $295	Average annual cost: $720
	Average annual cost of wearing contacts and glasses: $1,015
30-year cost: $4,500 Based on the national average.	Average 30-year cost of wearing contacts and glasses: $30,450

Over a 30-year period, LASIK could save you:

For your FREE Bladeless LASIK evaluation, call 610-378-8500.

Voted "Best of Berks" eight years in a row!

610-378-8500 | LASIKdoneRight.com

Offices in Wyomissing, Pottsville, Pottstown, Lebanon and Blandon

Of course, your actual cost will vary based on your situation. You may pay a different amount for glasses or contacts or buy them at more or less frequent intervals. We hope this information will be helpful for anyone who is researching the costs and benefits of LASIK.

Source: National average costs associated with contacts, glasses and LASIK.

REV 12/2022